

Why choose IQVIA Participant Payments?

A full-service solution with people, processes and technology to support your needs

IQVIA Participant Payments lifts the patient payment burden from sites and makes those payments faster and easier. With our single solution, sites can make reimbursements simpler, better engaging and retaining participants while maintaining compliance globally.

Unmatched capabilities on a global scale

A seamless, full-service solution for global trials

Accurate, timely and compliant payments anywhere in the world

Flexibility to integrate with existing solutions or complement IQVIA's solutions

Multiple payment modalities in local currencies (Visa™ virtual cards, ACH, wire, etc.)

Global experts in relevant regulations and compliance requirements

Data security through regional servers with advanced encryption and tokenization

Patient-centric technology and service

Designed to effectively support all participants

Innovative, easy-to-use technology with scan-to-upload for expenses

Choice of intuitive interface, with free smart device or web-based app

Real-time, fee-free transactions and compensation within a day

Site assistance to set up participants without the app

Dedicated multilingual support teams for participants

U.S. tax support: collect W-9, provide TIN validation and U.S. direct tax reporting

With our solution, participants get paid quickly and easily. Sites can focus on what really matters: trial success. It's a win-win.
